

High Performance Tennis Camps

Where are they now: How former SHP players utilized the lessons they learned to further their tennis and their future careers.

Chris Perrigan

Christopher Perrigan was born in the local Tallahassee area and began playing tennis at a young age. He soon found he had a passion for tennis and sought out the coaches at the Seminole High Performance Tennis program to further his tennis instruction. After several years with SHP he signed his National Letter of Intent to play Division 1 Tennis at Florida Gulf Coast University. After a successful career at FGCU, Chris is currently working Program Support for the House of Representatives and has recently been accepted to the Florida State University College of Law.
