Where are they now: How former SHP players utilized the lessons they learned to further their tennis and their future careers.

Brett Landau

Brett Landau was born and raised in Tallahassee, Florida. He played many sports growing up but soon came to fall in love with tennis. Looking to take his game to the next level Brett sought out the instruction of the coaches at the Seminole High Performance Tennis Academy. There Brett was able to meet his friend, junior doubles partner and fellow SHP grad Christopher Perrigan. This doubles tandem was very successful together on the Florida USTA circuit. As Brett's game blossomed so did his high school tennis career. Brett graduated from Maclay High School with a 79-4 singles record and an even more impressive 81-2 doubles record. During his senior year of high school, Brett signed his National Letter of Intent to play tennis for the University of North Carolina at Asheville. Brett posted quality results throughout his career at UNC Asheville while consistently retaining the #1 Doubles Position. Brett graduated from UNC Asheville in the spring of 2016.
